

MEMOIRS

"Some Interesting Criminal Cases
I Have Tried"

By Bruce Spaulding

December 1983

INTRODUCTION

This effort is dedicated to my two daughters, Doris Helen Rosen and Jean White, wife of Gary White, who have, over the years, attended my more interesting trials and made many helpful suggestions to me. They both also encouraged me to write my memoirs about these trials before the details are all forgotten. These details are all as fresh in my memory as though they happened last month.

